INITIAL DECISION

Employee filed a petition with the Office of Employee Appeals (OEA) on August 30, 2010, appealing Agency’s decision to remove him from his position as a special education teacher, effective June 22, 2010. Prior to the scheduling of any proceedings in this matter, Employee voluntarily requested that his appeal be withdrawn. The record is now closed.

JURISDICTION

The Office has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to D.C. Official Code §1-606.3 (2001).

ISSUE

Whether Employee’s petition for appeal should be dismissed based upon his voluntary withdrawal?

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

By letter dated January 18, 2011, Employee requested that his appeal be withdrawn. Based upon Employee's voluntary request for withdrawal, this judge concludes that Employee's appeal should be dismissed.
