INITIAL DECISION

INTRODUCTION AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On September 8, 2025, Employee filed a Petition for Appeal with the Office of Employee Appeals ("OEA" or "Office") contesting the District of Columbia Public Schools' ("Agency" or "DCPS") decision suspend her from service for two (2) days. Following a letter from OEA dated September 8, 2025, requesting an Answer in this matter, Agency filed its Answer and Motion to Dismiss on September 15, 2025. Agency cited therein that Employee was suspended for two (2) days and that OEA lacks jurisdiction over suspensions of less than ten (10) days. This matter was assigned to the undersigned Senior Administrative Judge on October 8, 2025.

On October 10, 2025², I issued an Order requiring the parties to submit briefs regarding the jurisdiction issue raised by Agency. Employee's brief was due on or before October 31, 2025. Agency's response was due on November 14, 2025. Employee did not submit her brief as required. On November 7, 2025, I issued an Order for Statement of Good Cause to Employee. Employee was ordered to submit her brief, along with a statement of good cause for her failure to submit her brief by the prescribed deadline. Employee's statement for good cause and brief were due by or before November 14, 2025. As of the date of this decision, Employee has not submitted a brief as required by the October 10, 2025, and November 7, 2025, Orders. The record is now closed.

¹ Employee's name was removed from this decision for the purposes of publication on the Office of Employee Appeals' website.

² On November 5, 2025, I reissued the Order following the receipt of return mail for Agency's representative. There was a typographical error in the address. The Order issued on November 5, 2025, was only issued to ensure Agency's receipt and there were no substantive changes made to the Order.

JURISDICTION

The jurisdiction of this Office has not been established in this matter.

ISSUE

Whether this appeal should be dismissed for failure to prosecute.

BURDEN OF PROOF

OEA Rule 631.1, 6-B DCMR Ch. 600 (December 27, 2021) states:

The burden of proof for material issues of fact shall be by a preponderance of the evidence. "Preponderance of the evidence" shall mean:

That degree of relevant evidence which a reasonable mind, considering the record as a whole, would accept as sufficient to find a contested fact more probably true than untrue.

OEA Rule 631.2 id. states:

For appeals filed under §604.1, the employee shall have the burden of proof as to issues of jurisdiction, including timeliness of filing. The agency shall have the burden of proof as to all other issues.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

OEA Rule 624.3 states in relevant part that the "if a party fails to take reasonable steps to prosecute or defend an appeal, the Administrative Judge, in the exercise of sound discretion, may dismiss the action or rule for the appellant. Failure of a party to prosecute or defend an appeal includes, but is not limited to, a failure to: ³

- (a) Appear at a scheduled proceeding after receiving notice;
- (b) Submit required documents after being provided with a deadline for such submission; or
- (c) Inform this Office of a change of address which results in correspondence being returned." (Emphasis Added)

This Office has consistently held that failure to prosecute an appeal includes failure to submit required documents after being provided with a deadline to comply with such orders.⁴ In the instant matter, Employee was provided notice in the October 10, 2025, and November 7, 2025, Orders that a failure to comply could result in sanctions, including dismissal. Additionally, all Orders were sent via postal mail service to the address provided by Employee in her Petition for Appeal. A response to each of these Orders was required to ensure an appropriate review and resolution of the matter. Accordingly, I find that Employee has not exercised the diligence expected of an appellant pursuing an appeal before this Office. I further find that Employee's failure to prosecute her appeal is a violation of OEA Rule 624.3. For these reasons, I have determined that this matter should be dismissed for Employee's failure to prosecute.

³ OEA Rule 624.3, 6-B DCMR Ch. 600 (December 27, 2021).

⁴ Williams v. D.C. Public Schools, OEA Matter 2401-0244-09 (December 13, 2010); Brady v. Office of Public Education Facilities Modernization, OEA Matter No. 2401-0219-09 (November 1, 2010).

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the Petition in this matter is DISMISSED for failure to prosecute.
