Sara White, Esq., Agency Representative

INITIAL DECISION

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND AND FINDINGS OF FACT

On September 3, 2009, Employee filed a petition for appeal with this Office from Agency's final decision separating him from his position of Custodian, SW, due to a Reduction-in-Force (RIF). The matter was assigned to the undersigned judge on February 25, 2011. I issued an Order directing the parties to submit a Prehearing Statement by March 18, 2011, and to attend a March 23, 2011, Prehearing Conference.

Despite prior warnings that failure to comply could result in sanctions, including dismissal; Employee failed to attend the conference nor did he submit a prehearing statement. Employee also failed to respond to a March 23, 2011, Order for Good Cause Statement. The record is closed.

JURISDICTION

The Office has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 1-606.03 (2001).

ISSUE

Whether this appeal should be dismissed for failure to prosecute.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

OEA Rule § 622.3, 46 D.C. Reg. 9313 (1999) provides as follows:

If a party fails to take reasonable steps to prosecute or defend an appeal, the Administrative Judge, in the exercise of sound discretion, may dismiss the action or rule for the appellant.” Failure of a party to prosecute or defend an appeal includes, but is not limited to, a failure to:

- (a) Appear at a scheduled proceeding after receiving notice;
- (b) Submit required documents after being provided with a deadline for such submission; or
- (c) Inform this Office of a change of address which results in correspondence being returned.

The employee was warned in each order that failure to comply could result in sanctions including dismissal. The employee never complied. Employee’s behavior constitutes a failure to prosecute his appeal and that is sound cause for dismissal.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the petition in this matter is dismissed for failure to prosecute.
